

Jim Armillay

Practical. Trusted. Approachable.

Jim Armillay is a seasoned business litigator and employment attorney who helps clients navigate complex disputes and regulatory challenges with clarity and confidence.

Drawing on experience from both private practice and in-house roles, Jim offers a rare combination of legal insight and business acumen.

He works with professionals, employers, and regulated businesses across industries—delivering practical advice and creative litigation strategies that reflect each client’s unique risks and goals. Whether defending a claim or helping a company prevent one, Jim leads with thoughtful, solutions-focused advocacy.